GREATER SEACOAST COMMUNITY HEALTH

About The Strafford County Public Health Network:

Strafford County Public Health Network (SCPHN) exists to improve the health, wellness, and quality of life for all individuals in Strafford County. It is one of 13 Public Health Networks across the State of New Hampshire that works with community partners to align public health priorities into one integrated system. SCPHN represents Barrington, Dover, Durham, Farmington, Lee, Madbury, Middleton, Milton, New Durham, Rochester, Rollinsford, Somersworth, Strafford and the University of New Hampshire. SCPHN is a program of Greater Seacoast Community Health, and is located in Goodwin Community Health in Somersworth.

To view this resource guide & others online, or for more information about SCPHN, please visit SCPHN.org

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

The SNAP Program is about good nutrition and health. It provides eligible people with benefits to buy food items at grocery stores, farmers markets and other approved food retailers.

Have EBT? Get 50% OFF fruits & veggies with DOUBLE UP FOOD BUCKS
